Virginia's New River Valley

YOUR COMPANY BELONGS IN THE NRV

For international companies that are ready to establish operations in the United States, Onward NRV would like to host a customized visit to explain why Virginia's New River Valley is a Natural Fit for your business.

Experience a 1-2 day trip in a beautiful region just 3.5 hours from Washington D.C.

Understand why the talent and workforce in the NRV is great for your business through meetings with Virginia Tech, Radford University, and New River Community College.

Meet with researchers, government officials, and companies in your industry to hear firsthand about personal and professional experiences in the NRV.

Finish your visit with a regional tour and trips to sites and buildings to locate your business.
